HOMESTAY RESPONSIBILITIES

Every Homestay student is expected to:

- Comply with your family's ground rules and expectations including the appropriate use of digital devices.
- Notify your Homestay parent of any allergies or special dietary requirements.
- Notify the school if you are ill or need to be absent from school.
- Become involved in your Homestay family's activities - and help out with chores, including making your bed and keeping your room tidy.
- Obey the guidelines regarding the drinking of alcoholic beverages and smoking of cigarettes or vapes and the possession/ consumption of any illicit substances in accordance with South Australian laws and School rules.
- Ensure that you keep your parents up to date with how you are going at school and coping with your Homestay experience.

As a member of your new family, you have responsibilities too.

These are your basic responsibilities:

- Behave as a member of the family and be respectful of your family and home.
- Keep the house key secure at all times.
- Be familiar with and support the rules and expectations of the family and the College.
- You must communicate with your Homestay family and if you don't understand something, ask questions.
- You should participate with your family in activities and offer to help with household chores such as meal preparation and clean up, tidying up after yourself in living areas that you share with the family etc.
- You must keep your room clean.
- Check with your family before taking food into your room or before putting anything up on the walls.
- Respect the rights, privacy and the religious and political beliefs of each of the members of your Homestay family.
- If you are coming home later than expected, be sure to phone your Homestay family.
- Pay board and other agreed expenses on time. Always keep a rent book for your Homestay parent to sign or ask for a receipt.
- Be punctual and helpful at all times.
- Ensure that you have good study habits and routines.

CONSENT AND RELEASE:

I / we:

- Consent for our child / international student to stay with the host family.
